

Designed with Intention

Weaving Emotion Into Experience

The Desire

This isn't just full planning. It's full partnership.

When you choose Designed With Intention, you're choosing curated connection, intuitive guidance, and a creative force that understands this day is about more than logistics. We don't just organize. We craft experiences that feel aligned, grounded, and emotionally rich—start to finish.

You bring the love. We bring the clarity, the calm, and the ability to see the big picture while sweating the small stuff.

The Day

By the time the day arrives, everything has been handled. You'll walk in knowing it's already done—because we've already done it. We're not just showing up with a clipboard. We're the steady hands behind the scenes, managing every vendor arrival, every transition, every moment. From setup to send-off, your planner (and our team) will be on-site so you can stay fully present and feel held. This day deserves more than just coordination. It deserves care.

This service typically begins 12-18 months out. It starts at five figures for a reason.

You're trusting us with more than just your wedding. You're handing over your vision, your expectations, and the emotion behind the moment. We honour that. And we're here to design it with the care it deserves.
